

1916 ARE ADMITTED TO DISTRICT BAR

Seven Women in List—Practically Every State in Union Is Represented.

One hundred and ninety-seven attorneys were admitted to the practice of law in the District of Columbia today. The District Supreme Court, in general term, with all the justices present, accepted the lawyers, who successfully passed the recent examination conducted by the District Bar Association.

The list included seven women and 190 men, 14 of whom gave the District of Columbia as their residence. Practically every State in the Union was represented in the list, which was the largest number ever admitted at one time.

William Henry Dennis, chairman of the examining committee, moved the admission of the young lawyers, and Frederick O'Connell, clerk of the District court, administered the oath. Chief Justice Covington welcomed the additions to the bar.

Were Honor Students.

The women admitted included three honor students of Washington law schools. Miss Marian Clark, of Cecil, Md., has the distinction of being the first woman in many years who procured her law degree at George Washington University. She formerly taught in the Eastern High School, and is now on the teaching staff of McKinley Manual Training School.

The other women admitted are graduates of the Washington College of Law. Miss Laura M. Berrien won first honors in her class, and intends to practice law in her home city, Waynesboro, Ga., as soon as the Georgia legislature will pass a law admitting women to practice. She is employed in the income division of the Treasury Department.

Miss S. Evelyn White, winner of second honors in her class, is a native of Danville, Va. She is a graduate of Business High School and now is employed in the real estate department of the Washington Loan and Trust Company.

One From Nebraska.

Another honor student of the Washington College of Law is Miss Anna Speich, of Sutton, Neb. She is employed in the office of the auditor for the Postoffice Department.

The other women attorneys admitted included Miss Lucile Compton, of Manchester, Ohio, a graduate with the class of 1909, of Central High School, and now employed with a firm of patent lawyers; Miss Dora Falkin, of Stamford, Conn., who intends to practice law in the District; and Miss Alice Preuss, of San Francisco, employed in the Pension Office.

List of New Attorneys.

The complete list of new attorneys and the States from which they come follows:

Eugene H. Andrew, Missouri; Wm. Earle Anderson, Maryland; James T. Allen, Kansas; Laura M. Berrien, Georgia; Jerome S. Blackstone, District of Columbia; William Blake, Connecticut; Geo. G. Boy, New York; Alvin McC. Brown, Maryland; Lewis T. Breuninger, District of Columbia; Harry Cole Bates, District of Columbia; William E. Leitch, Illinois; L. A. Baker, New Jersey; Robert E. Barry, District of Columbia; A. Bean, Jr., Pennsylvania; Harry W. Palmer, Tennessee; Charles R. Burgess, Vermont; T. K. Burrows, New York; M. H. Horroch, Georgia; Edward M. Brennan, Rhode Island; Charles Walter Bach, Maryland; William E. Boyle, Maine; Alvin L. Bellemann, Ohio; L. H. Bayless, District of Columbia; Roger E. Brooks, District of Columbia; E. C. Babcock, District of Columbia; Franklin Barr, Virginia; Howard E. Burns, Colorado; D. D. Burroughs, District of Columbia; M. T. Broome, Maryland; Kenneth H. Brooks, Maryland; J. H. Batt, Delaware; Marion Clark, Maryland.

Lucile Compton, Ohio; Howard E. Chapp, Ohio; H. R. Chabot, Wisconsin; E. C. Conway, District of Columbia; Bruce L. Carter, Pennsylvania; Raymond N. Campbell, New York; Theodore W. Calkins, District of Columbia; Lawrence H. Calkins, District of Columbia; Francis B. Condon, Rhode Island; McGill Conner, Tennessee; Pierre Chamblin, District of Columbia; Howard W. Dix, New York; Henry W. Driscoll, Nebraska; Milton Barr, District of Columbia; Joseph M. P. Donohoe, District of Columbia; William J. Davis, Jr., District of Columbia; Edward F. Davis, District of Columbia; Lloyd L. Evans, Colorado; William Russell Ehrentraut, District of Columbia; E. R. Everett, Minnesota; A. E. Foster, Iowa; Martin P. Fisher, District of Columbia; Jack V. Feldman, Wisconsin; David C. Finney, New York; Howard C. Paul, Pennsylvania; Chester L. Finch, Oklahoma; Lemuel A. Frazer, District of Columbia; Edward Fisher, New York; Clyde H. Freed, Pennsylvania; Rufus B. French, Kansas; Garcia de Quevedo, Porto Rico; R. F. Gross, California; Robert C. Gulley, District of Columbia; Van P. Garner, Virginia; Charles H. Gibson, Maryland; George Gieble, District of Columbia; Henry D. Gagliastier, Georgia; Eugene G. Grenwald, District of Columbia; Glenn H. Griffith, Ohio; Charles W. Griffin, Massachusetts; John Stuer, Illinois; Caroline E. Hall, Illinois; E. K. Hotelling, New York; James Allen Hoffman, Pennsylvania; John L. Hougharty, New Jersey; Lawrence J. Heller, District of Columbia; F. S. Holbrook, New York; K. S. Hampton, Utah; Alton Ross Hodgson, Maine; Lauris C. Haugen, Iowa; Fred A. Heimer, District of Columbia; Ray Hildebrand, District of Columbia; H. C. Holmes, Kansas; Raphael S. Harrington, District of Columbia; J. Marvin Haynes, Texas; Edmond L. Jones, Maryland; Bernard Jackson, District of Columbia; Henry J. Kent, Massachusetts; Maurice Kohner, District of Columbia; David B. Kautsky, District of Columbia; Randall J. Larson, North Dakota; Mortimer C. Lydgate, District of Columbia; Joseph E. Lamb, Mississippi; Frank H. Long, Virginia; Ewing M. Laporte, Missouri; Willis E. Monty, Vermont; John McHale, District of Columbia; Charles St. Marsh, Virginia; D. L. Morris, District of Columbia; P. B. Morehouse, District of Columbia; W. Clarence Miller, District of Columbia; Benjamin W. McLaughlin, Connecticut; Charles H. McCarthy, District of Columbia; Raymond J. Mawhinney, District of Columbia; Harry T. Miller, Pennsylvania; Leo Manville, South Dakota; Matthew M. Moore, Ernest R. Moore, North Carolina; John M. Morawski, Massachusetts; Daniel S. Murphy, South Carolina; Joseph W. McMahon, Connecticut; Newton W. McConnell, Washington; Bernard L. McGarvey, Pennsylvania; Roy H. Morrill, Massachusetts; Edward S. McKelton, Connecticut; Maguire McArdie, District of Columbia; Harry Maxwell, Oklahoma; W. V. Marnion, West Virginia; Daniel V. Mahoney, District of Columbia; James B. Murphy, Massachusetts; Paul F. Myers, New Jersey; Ray J. Murnan, Pennsylvania; Harry M. Masman, New York; Kenneth S. Neal, Connecticut.

Francis M. Newkirk, Oregon; Laird L. Neal, Tennessee; John J. O'Connell, Connecticut; Jeremiah Leo O'Connor, Kansas; Richard J. O'Brien, Pennsylvania; G. J. Pearlsman, District of Columbia; Alice B. Preuss, California; Donnell E. Robertson, District of Columbia; James P. Rosier, Pennsylvania; Max L. Rosenblatt, New York; Harry B. Rook, Connecticut; Edwin Reed, Massachusetts; Roland C. Rehn, Indiana; Joseph M. Reiter, South Carolina; E. Ruffner, Pennsylvania; Hewitt G. Robertson, Maryland; Percival L. Rowell, New York; Nelson S. Rexford, Virginia; Paul V. Rogers, District of Columbia; H. M. Reitzel, Iowa; Alexander C. Robeson, District of Columbia.

Anna Speich, Nebraska; R. W. Smith, District of Columbia; Harry G. Sabine, Tennessee.

HUGHES' CAMPAIGN PILOT

WILLIAM H. HUGHES.
Newly Chosen Chairman of the Republican National Committee.

BRIDGEHAMPTON, N. Y., June 30.—Candidate Charles E. Hughes had a two-hour conference today with former President William H. Taft. The Republican nominee wanted Taft's advice on a number of matters connected with the campaign, and it is also believed he undertook the role of peace-maker in trying to heal the bruises incurred in the feud between Taft and Roosevelt. The Republican nominee spent the morning in true vacation fashion, playing golf at the Bridgehampton Club with his secretary, Lawrence H. Green. He was on the links for three hours. Taft was a luncheon guest. Chairman Willcox of the national committee will meet the candidate in New York on Monday.

upper Rock Creek Park last Sunday afternoon. The feature of the exhibition was a salamander, the only one of its kind discovered within a radius of hundreds of miles, recently found in Rock Creek Park by Dr. Shufeldt.

These explorative expeditions through Rock Creek Park are usually remunerative, because the park abounds with some of the rarest and most interesting varieties of aquatic plants and animals in the country.

The exact date of the outing has not been determined, but at a recent meeting of the arrangements committee it was stated that plans had been virtually completed.

A hospital tent is to be provided, so that should any of the little ones become ill they may receive proper medical attention. The hospital tent is to be in charge of Dr. William E. Walter and a corps of assistants. E. H. Neumeier, Jr., is in charge of the commissary arrangements.

The outing committee is made up of John C. Lineman, chairman; M. G. McCormick, and John H. Baltz.

Daniel W. Glasgow, employed in the navy yard, was sued today in the District Supreme Court for a limited divorce by his wife, Sarah A. Glasgow, who alleged cruelty and desertion.

Glasgow is required to show cause July 7 why he should not pay temporary alimony in a rule issued. Permanent alimony is sought in the petition, which was filed by Attorney John C. Foster and Robert L. Miller.

The Aquarium Society of Washington gave an exhibition of rare aquatic fauna and flora at the Thompson School, Twelfth and L streets northwest, last evening.

Specimens were collected on an expedition of the society headed by Dr. R. W. Shufeldt, Medical Corps, United States Army, through the assistance of Mr. J. H. B. Smith, District of Columbia.

You'll find it Just Right.

—Try Elk Grove Butter and you will be convinced of its purity and quality. It is the butter that satisfies every demand.

AT ALL GROCERS
Golden & Co
922-928 La. Ave.
Wholesalers Only.

The Only Credit House at Cash Prices
Head-to-Foot Outfitters for the Entire Family
H. ABRAMSON,
At Abramson's Corner
7th and L Sts. N. W.

HUGHES AND TAFT CONFER FOR 2 HOURS

Candidate and Former President at Luncheon at Bridgehampton, L. I.

BRIDGEHAMPTON, N. Y., June 30.—Candidate Charles E. Hughes had a two-hour conference today with former President William H. Taft.

The Republican nominee wanted Taft's advice on a number of matters connected with the campaign, and it is also believed he undertook the role of peace-maker in trying to heal the bruises incurred in the feud between Taft and Roosevelt.

The Republican nominee spent the morning in true vacation fashion, playing golf at the Bridgehampton Club with his secretary, Lawrence H. Green. He was on the links for three hours. Taft was a luncheon guest.

Chairman Willcox of the national committee will meet the candidate in New York on Monday.

HALT PROSECUTIONS ON SODA WATER LAW

Health Authorities Decide to Wait for Investigation.

Pending an investigation by the Health Department of the claim of certain druggists that it is impracticable to comply with the new regulations providing for the sterilization of glasses and receptacles used at soda water fountains, no prosecutions will be entered, according to a statement of Health Officer W. C. Woodward, today.

The regulations, which were adopted by the Commissioners December 3, and became effective tomorrow, provide for the sterilization by steam or hot water of receptacles in which cold water, food, beverages or ice cream is sold.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

GUARDSMEN IN U. S. SERVICE LOSE PENSION

Militiamen Not Mustered in Unaffected By Ruling.

Because of the large number of inquiries being received at the Pension Bureau regarding the status of pensioners who enlist in the national guard and are mustered into the Federal service, Commissioner G. M. Saltzgeber has issued the following statement:

"The laws of the United States provide that no person in the service of the United States in the army, navy, marine corps, revenue cutter service or coast guard either on the active or retired list, shall receive pension during the period of such service."

Membership in the national guard must be a month or more before a pensioner is entitled to pension. This is true notwithstanding the allowances of pay under the act passed June 3, 1916.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

Should a pensioner by reason of entry into the Federal service and an application for restoration be made after the termination of such service, the matter of restoration will be determined upon the conditions existing at the time of the application.

TEN PENSION OFFICE CLERKS DISMISSED

Congress Fails to appropriate Sufficient Funds to Continue Salaries.

Ten employees of the Pension Office will cease drawing salary from the Federal Government tonight.

Their dismissal was caused by failure of Congress to appropriate sufficient funds for the Pension Office to continue the clerks in service after July 1, tomorrow.

One woman employee is among the ten whose removal becomes effective at the close of the office tonight.

Commissioner of Pensions Saltzgeber declared today that the removal of the employees was made necessary by the action of the subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee, which took the view that the office could be maintained with a smaller salary list.

Advice Not Heeded. "I told the committee every person on the force was profitably employed at a proper salary," Commissioner Saltzgeber explained, "but my representations were not heeded, and a reduced appropriation was provided which makes it necessary for me to remove outright ten employees tonight."

The appropriation for Pension Office salaries effective tomorrow, July 1, decreased the roll to such an extent that a total of sixty-seven employees had to be dropped at the close of business today. Resignations, deaths or other causes of vacancies in the office since the first of the year, however, has reduced the total of removals to ten.

Least Efficient Ones Go. Commissioner Saltzgeber said the reductions affected employees who were least efficient as clerks, but that preference had been shown for veterans in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

No proofs, he said, have been submitted in support of their contention, and he has ordered that inquiry be made by the food inspectors. Several weeks, he said, will be required to conclude the investigation.

Dr. Woodward said today that a number of druggists have contended that the articles can be properly cleaned by cold water, and that it is impracticable to install sterilizing apparatus.

RIFLE CLUBS SHOW THEIR PATRIOTISM

Assignments Tomorrow At the Rifle Range.

High School Cadets. George Washington University. Interclub Match.

How many members of the civilian rifle clubs have responded to the President's call for the militia at war strength?

The executive officers of the National Rifle Association started their forces to work today to find out and determine just how much of a factor in real patriotism the rifle clubs have been.

Since the first of this year there have been thousands of civilian rifle clubs organized throughout the country, and free rifles and ammunition have been given them by the War Department.

The National Rifle Association has initiated all of these organizations, and has secured the use of Federal and State ranges where they can practice.

Thousands of men have qualified as marksmen and sharpshooters throughout the country during the past six months. The officers of the association now want to know how many men have shown their appreciation of this service by enlisting in the national guard.

The executive officers of all the rifle clubs in the country have been requested to notify Major Fred H. Phillips, Jr., secretary of the National Rifle Association, of the number of men in each organization who have gone into the national guard or responded to the call for troops.

Some of the rifle club members are already members of the national guard. These will be counted, as well as those who have enlisted after the call was issued by the President. It probably will be a month or more before a definite statement can be made as the number of men who have volunteered for service.

One new civilian rifle club has been organized in the District during the past week. This organization is formed of men working in the Government Printing Office and is known as the Monotype Rifle Club. The President of the organization is W. S. Martin. Thomas R. McCreary is vice president; Frank Jost, secretary; C. D. Shaw, treasurer, and W. W. Wallace, executive officer.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.

Announcement was made today that the weekly magazine, "Arms and the Man," which has been published in this city for several years past, has been purchased outright by the National Rifle Association, and beginning with the issue of July 1, will appear as the official organ of the association.